

The Stephen Sanig Research Institute is committed to respect the privacy of our website visitors and donors and to maintain the confidentiality of your personal information.

Visitor logs used on this site are for statistical purposes only. No attempt will be made to identify or collect personal information about users. The Institute may automatically receive and record information on our server logs from your browser, which may include your IP address, session time, click path analysis, and the pages you request. The Institute will only use this type of data in an aggregate form which does not identify you personally.

The Stephen Sanig Research Institute does not sell, rent or trade consumer mailing lists.

The personal information you provide is solely utilised to process and receive your donation, to register your attendance at an event or meeting, or to respond to any information requests you may have. Donors' anonymity will be respected where applicable and if requested. Upon request, we will provide you full access to your information and maintain its accuracy according to your instructions.

The Institute strives to keep donors informed about how donations are used and their importance for continuing our research programs and public initiatives. We send several mailings a year to accomplish this and include a donation coupon to invite financial support. Most of the Stephen Sanig Research Institute supporters would like to receive all of our mailings and newsletters. However, you may opt out of any or all mailings by forwarding us your request.
